

Support and Reporting Options: Sexual Discrimination Sexual Misconduct

Do you want to talk to someone AND you want to report the incident?

You may choose where or with whom you are most comfortable:

- Title IX Coordinator - Elise Glenn: 724-357-3402 or title-ix@iup.edu
- Title IX Deputies - Melanie Duncan (Title IX Office): mduncan@iup.edu or Ann Sesti (Center for Health & Well-Being): annsesti@iup.edu
- Online Reporting to the Title IX Office - iup.edu/incidentreport/
- University Police Anonymous Reporting - 724-357-2550 or iup.edu/police/forms/anonymous-reporting-form/
- Confidential Contacts - Counseling Center: 724-357-2621 or Health Service: 724-357-2550
- Office of Community Standards - 724-357-1264 or community-standards@iup.edu

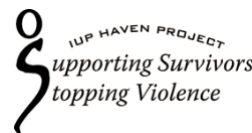

Do you want to talk to someone BUT you're not sure about reporting the incident?

You have options:

- Counseling Support - Licensed counselors can assist you at the Counseling Center or can refer you to local therapists. The Haven Project or the Alice Paul House can assist you in this way as well.
 - The Indiana Regional Medical Center (IRMC) can provide emergency medical care and rape kits. IUP Health Service can provide medical attention and STD/STI/HIV testing or contraceptive counseling.
- Note: IRMC will give you the option to speak with the police and an advocate.

Other Resources: (The Counseling Center, Haven Project, and/or Title IX Office can assist you with these.)

- Requesting Accommodations - Whether or not a person chooses to report, they can request accommodations if their safety or well-being is at risk by contacting the Title IX Coordinator or the IUP Haven Project. Examples include changing academic schedules or on-campus housing assignments, use of IUP's escort system, and adjustments to work assignments. Visit iup.edu/haven/.
- Academic Support and Services - Contact individual colleges (iup.edu/academicaffairs/offices/) or University College and University Navigators at 724-357-2375 or iup.edu/university-college/.
- IUP Housing - Call 724-357-2696 or email iup-housing@iup.edu, iup-dining@iup.edu, or iup-resnet@iup.edu
