A Note from Student Affairs

Please help spread the word to any students that may be looking for a break from their school work. We are now offering fun virtual programming!

Updates

April is Sexual Violence Awareness Month

April is Sexual Violence Awareness Month. The What Were You Wearing Campaign will be done via digital exhibit this week. It will be brought to you on the Haven Project's Website and social media pages. Haven Project members will share anonymous survivor stories, along with a visual of what type of clothing they were wearing at the time of their assault. The campaign brings awareness to the issue of victim-blaming and helps to dismantle the myths about sexual assault occurring due to what a person was wearing. To view their stories, go to our website at iup.edu/haven. You can also view stories on our social media - Facebook at IUP Haven Project and Instagram and Twitter at @IUPHaven. Let's show our support for survivors!

What would you tell a survivor? IUP's Haven Project is working on an idea and needs everyone's help to show our support for survivors of sexual assault. We are encouraging everyone to fill out the template with a supportive message of what you would tell a survivor. Then take a picture with you holding the sign (or just the sign) and send it to haven-project@iup.edu. We will compile all the photos and create a supportive video showing survivors that IUP supports them. If you are interested in participating, we need all photos by Monday, April 27th. This video will be placed on Haven's website at iup.edu/haven, along with Haven's social media - Facebook at IUP Haven Project, and Instagram and Twitter at @IUPHaven. Let's continue to show our support for survivors!

Student Support and Engagement Team

Did you know that the IUP has assembled a new team made up of professionals from across the university to assist students called the Student Support and Engagement Team? We have helped students connect with their academic advisors to get their fall class schedules, worked with their faculty to complete assignments or get extensions, accessed tutoring, obtained counseling appointments, and assisted in getting students registered for accommodations. We have also been a "listening ear" for students on Zoom and phone calls, as well as functioned as student advocates via email exchanges.

If a student you know requires support for any reason, please contact us at iup-hawks@iup.edu. We are here for you. Please take care during these times of uncertainty.
